The big news this issue is that WTUL will be going off the air until further notice...April Fools! (you didn't really believe that, did you?) No, in reality WTUL is alive and very well, thanks in part to your support demonstrated during our 11th annual Rock-On-Survival Marathon--but more about that later. Right now, read on to find out about some great April happenings in New Orleans...

There are some promising nights coming up in the future. Tonight, April 1, WTUL is proud to bring you the international recording star Lief Garrett live on the quad. With Lief's special charm it should be a really exciting evening for us all...(Gotcha again? Remember--April Fools!) On April 2, John Lee Hooker will be at Tipitina's, and for all you jazz lovers, Chick Corea and Gary Burton will be at the Saenger. The Radiators will be appearing on the 3rd, also at Tip's, and The Nightriders will be at the Maple Leaf...Peter, Paul & Mary will bring their mellow sounds to the Saenger on April 3, too...Godot will be appearing at The Boot on Sunday April 5...The James Rivers Movement, The Radiators, and Li'l Queenie and the Percolators will be at The Boot on April 7, 9, and 10 respectively...Sunday April 12 features a Block Party at The Boot with Music supplied by The Radiators, Li'l Queenie and the Percolators, Deacon John, James Rivers, The Meters, and some other surprises...Ole Man Rivers gets in the reggae spirit with Burning Spear on April 8... On the 14th, Loverboy and Point Blank will be appearing at the Warehouse. Be on the lookout for Ella Fitzgerald in The Blue Room to help kick off the 1981 Jazz and Heritage Festival...All this is subject to change, and not all the clubs have all their music lined up yet, so to find out more, listen to WTUL and call the clubs.

Ace, of Ace's Global Folk Show, has some really good music lined up for your leisurely Sunday entertainment. On April 5, Terry Bolyn will be featured at 2:00...The Royal Street Gypsies will bring their music to you at 2:30...and at 3:00 Ace will welcome Dwight and Jeff on the show. On April 12, Ace will be trying something new and different--even for him--when he broadcasts live from the Tulane quad in conjunction with Recycling Day.

Green Wave baseball is well under way with five upcoming games in the immediate future. On April 3 the Wave will meet UNO in the Superdome at 7:30...The next two nights, April 4 and 5, the Green Wave plays Florida State, with both of those home games beginning at 1:00...April 11 brings LSU to New Orleans, with that game starting at 1:55...and April 12 features UNO and the Wave once more, also beginning at 1:55.

If you haven't caught any of the Jazz Spotlights--or you aren't familiar with them--take a few minutes to listen. The spotlights can be heard everyday from 6:00 to 6:30 on WTUL's World of Jazz. So, you're still wondering what the Jazz department has been up to? Well, the spotlights are a concise history of jazz, the music and the men and women who made it famous. Each week an instrument--bass, saxophone, piano, etc.--or a style--Big Band,Modern--will be featured. Everyday an individual artist will be spotlighted--with his music and a few comments on his life and idiosyncrasies, and how these elements helped to shape his career. The week of April 5 will feature saxophone with the individual spotlight on Charlie Parker, Sonny Rollins, Ben Webster, Gerry Mulligan, Rahsan Roland Kirk, John Coltrane, and John Garbarek. The week of April 12 will also feature saxophone, highlighting the work and lives of Lester Young, Wayne Shorter, Stan Getz, Gene Ammons, Ornette Coleman, Dexter Gordon, and Anthony Braxton. Whether you already think you are well informed about jazz or are still learning, WTUL encourages you to tune in.

As mentioned before, this year's WTUL Marathon was an overwhelming success, thanks to all of you, our listeners. We sincerely appreciate your support and hope to continue to bring you the best in progressive music and special events with the dollars you contributed. We also hope that you took advantage of the great bands and beautiful three days out on the quad. One final note--if you haven't sent in your pledge yet, please do so today. We're counting on you.

We would like to welcome four new sponsors to WTUL. The Clarity Club at 308 N. Rampart, and Clyde's Comedy Corner are new to our family of sponsors, as are Dunn Inn at 1823 Robert Street, and Interceptor Electronics. Welcome to WTUL and thanks for your support! If you would like to support progressive radio in New Orleans, call the WTUL business office.

Our cover artist this issue is Steve Aibel, the same artist who designed our Marathon logo which you are hopefully displaying across your chest on the Marathon T-shirt. Steve is a graduate of Tulane and is currently working as a free-lance artist. If you would like to submit a drawing to Vox Humana, please make it 4x5 inches large (or proportionately larger), and send it to us with a little information about yourself.

If you have a request, the number to call is 865-6210. Vox Humana is a bi-weekly feature of WTUL, and if you would like to receive it for free in your mailbox, send your name to ours: WTUL-Vox Humana, Tulane University Center, New Orleans, Louisiana, 70118.
